

BONES WEST

"A TROMBONE CHOIR PLAYING IN THE BIG BAND STYLE"

Founded by George Roberts, Bones West is an open-membership all-volunteer community music group that exists for the purposes of advancing trombone performance and fellowship through rehearsal, public performance and clinics.

Open rehearsals take place from 9:30am to 12:30pm each Saturday morning at the Orange County Musicians' Association which is located at 2050 S. Main St., Santa Ana, CA.

ALL SKILL LEVELS AND AGES ARE WELCOME!!!

www.boneswest.org for more details.

The Library

Bones West has a world-class library containing over 1,000 arrangements.

We feature custom charts by: Stan Kenton alumni Harry Betts and Bob Olson, Tommy Dorsey alumnus Charles LaRue, Les Brown's chief arranger Frank Comstock, and James Christensen of Disneyland and Disney World.

In addition, we have works by choir members John Campanella and Paul Edwards, and as well as former members David Borkenhagen, Frank Cheever, Ron Dickinson, Adrian Drover, and John Ward.

Membership

Bones West is an open-membership organization and there is no audition required for participation. The age range of our membership runs from eight to eighty and guests and parents are welcome to attend.

Rehearsal Schedule - Saturdays

9:00am Set-up
9:30am Warm-up & "Legit" Set #1
10:30am "Big Band" Set #2
11:30am "Big Band" Set #3
12:30pm Sign-off & clean up

Directions

55 Freeway to
Edinger Avenue (West) to Main Street (Left) to
2050 South Main (West side of street)

